WESTMINSTER WASTE REMOVAL SCHEDULE CHANGES

Changes to the Waste Removal Schedule for Labor Day Holiday

Westminster, MD – The City of Westminster Department of Public Works wishes to advise of the necessity to operate on a revised curbside services schedule due to the Labor Day Holiday.

The revised schedule for waste removal services within the City limits will be as follows for the collection week of Monday, September 5th through Friday, September 9th.

Monday, September 5th – City CLOSED, no pick ups

Tuesday, September 6th – Metal, tires, batteries, large appliances

Wednesday, September 7th – Bagged yard waste, no loose material

Thursday, September 8th – Bulk trash for residents East of MD RT 31 *including Village of Meadow Creek, excluding Carroll Meadows

Friday, September 9th – Bulk trash for residents West of MD RT 31 *including Carroll Meadows, excluding Village of Meadow Creek

Curbside services will resume normal, every other week schedule starting Monday, September 12th.

Household trash service provided by Ecology Services will shift one day forward due to the holiday. Households scheduled for regular Monday pick up will be collected on Tuesday; Tuesday pick up will be collected on Wednesday; Wednesday pick up will be collected on Thursday; Thursday pick up will be collected on Friday; and Friday pick up will be collected on Saturday.
