David S. Babylon, Jr. Community Building Grand Opening

Westminster, MD – The Westminster City Department of Recreation and Parks announce the completion of the David S. Babylon, Jr. Community Building located in Westminster City Park West area. The ribbon cutting and dedication happened on Thursday May 20th, 2010 and was attended by Mayor Kevin Utz, Westminster Fallfest President, Marshall Green, Westminster Optimist President John Paris, Director of Recreation and Parks Ron Schroers, Mrs. Evelyn Babylon, other city personnel and the public. Funding for this project was acquired through Program Open Space, private donations, and city funds.

The building is located behind the Westminster Family Fitness Center building at 11 Longwell Ave. The new community building will serve Westminster Optimist, Westminster Fallfest Inc., and many other non-profit organizations throughout the year.

For more information on this and other facilities or playgrounds in the Westminster City limits visit our website www.westminstermd.gov or call 410-857-9072.
