IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 9,
2009

The Westminster Police Department is currently investigating a fatal motor vehicle collision which occurred on Thursday, October 8, 2009 at 11:55 p.m.

The operator of a Ford Explorer was attempting to turn around in the overflow parking lot for Maggies restaurant located at the northeast corner of Washington Rd. and E. Green St. The vehicle operator drove off of the parking lot surface and the vehicle became stuck on an embankment between the parking lot and the Francis Automotive building which is located at 25 Washington Rd.

As individuals were attempting to push the vehicle back onto the parking lot, the vehicle slid down the embankment and pinned the victim between the Francis Automotive building and the Ford Explorer. The victim was pronounced dead at the scene.

The victim has been identified as:

Brandon Levar Turner
25 years of age
Westminster, Md.

An autopsy will be performed by the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner on Mr. Turner. Assisting in the investigation were the Maryland State Police C.R.A.S.H. team and the Carroll County Sheriff's Office.
